

DEBT RECOVERY SEMINAR

Have you ever walked away from chasing payment from builders, project managers or homeowners because you thought it was too hard or too expensive to chase?

David Court is a Registered Adjudicator who has a wealth of experience advising companies on what to do to avoid and [or] resolve disputes and to receive payments for work satisfactorily completed. He will give you tips and valuable advice on:

- Having the right contract
- What to look out for in a builders contract before signing
- What qualifications to include in your proposal to cover regularly encountered issues such as access restrictions, standing time, disruption and damage caused by other trades etc
- How to deal with and get paid for changes
- Payment tips and tricks
- How to deal with threats of back-charges
- Plus much more
